

Brooke is a 14 year old singer-songwriter, actress and dancer born and raised in Texas.

As a singer-songwriter, she performs as a solo artist and is working on releasing her first EP. She is also working with her band, In the Spotlight, on their first album, where she is lead singer and plays rhythm guitar.

Brooke has performed vocally at many community events, including NCL, Community Football League, Community Jazz Festival, Little League, The Challenger Organization, countless benefits and showcases as well as radio shows. One of her favorite things to do is to sing The National Anthem and has had the opportunity to do this numerous times at community sporting events and venues.

Brooke's love for music extends to the Theatre and she is a part of TUTS Humphreys School of Musical Theater. She has had several lead roles in school musicals, as well as in the ensemble cast of Rent at The Grand Opera House at age eleven.

In addition to school and performing, Brooke volunteers with her mother through the National Charity League, a league that serves the community while fostering mother daughter relationships. Brooke has given over 30 hours of her time this past year to various philanthropies through NCL, most have been spent supporting the local Childrens Hospital. In addition she serves her school and parish community by singing in choir, as well as a volunteer guitar and vocal teacher for young children at a local music studio, and a dance coach for community football league.

Brooke also plays guitar, piano and the ukulele. She enjoys spending time with her brother, cousins and friends, listening to music, bike riding and going to the beach.
