

West University Teen Shines In Hollywood!

Wins Top Honors at The Grammy Museum during IMC Awards

Some of the best independent singers and bands from around the world hit the red carpet recently during the 2019 Indie Music Channel Awards held at The Grammy Museum in Los Angeles. Among those recognized for their outstanding achievements in music were West University resident Brooke Michelle, who won "Best Female Easy Listening Artist" and "Best Pop Songwriter of the Year" during the event for her beautiful composition, "Homesick".

"It is so cool to win at the IMC Awards," said the 16 year old artist. "I just love music, and to be recognized in this way among so many talented artists from around the world, it's awesome!"

Brooke also took the stage and wowed the crowd with her amazing voice when she performed during the ceremony in The Grammy Museum's Clive Davis Theater.

The Indie Music Channel Awards is a prestigious annual event where the best independent singers and bands of all genres of music (including Rock, Pop, Country, Classical, R&B, Christian Contemporary and more) from around the world are recognized for their outstanding achievement. This year the popular awards show was held at The Grammy Museum in Los Angeles, where some of the biggest names in the history of music are honored.

Known within the industry for her outstanding musical and acting skills, Brooke Michelle will soon be releasing her award winning song as part of her debut album which will be released later this summer. She also has several live performance dates scheduled across the country.

Ferrante Fever Movie Screening

The Italian Cultural & Community Center, 1101 Milford Street, presents the screening of Ferrante Fever on Tuesday, June 4. A short lecture overviewing Elena Ferrante's work will be held before the movie. Tickets are on sale online and at the door.

Ferrante Fever, directed by Giacomo Durzi, premiered in March 2019. Ferrante Fever is the story of the global literary sensation, Elena Ferrante. A journey between New York City's cultural hub and Ferrante's native Italy, the film explores how an anonymous author's visceral tales of love and friendship gained such an enthusiastic following. Hillary Clinton, Roberto Saviano, Jonathan Franzen and others weigh-in on the Ferrante "craze" and what makes her work—and her mysterious persona—so uniquely captivating.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Ticket prices: $10 for ICC members and $15 for non-members. Reservations can be made at Eventbrite or call (713) 524-4222 ext. 7. More information about the event can be found at www.iccchouston.com.

Save the date for Jazz Communion on July 7

The Marvin Gaspard Trio returns to St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, 8915 Timberside, for Jazz Communion service on July 7. You will be tappin' and clappin' to the Trio's jazzy tunes and enjoy singing familiar hymns, including a rousing rendition of "When the Saints Go Marching In" to conclude worship. Jazz Communion is a perfect day to invite a friend to join you for worship and for the All American Picnic afterward. Hot dogs with all the trimmings will be served in the Cookie Room along with yummy desserts from our church members.
